

Name: _____ Hour: _____

Exploring Your Textbook Assignment

1. What website is associated with your text?
2. What year is the book copyrighted?
3. How many chapters are there?
4. What special feature is at the end of each chapter?
5. What graph can be found in chapter 5 on page 155?

6. What strategies does the book give for studying economics and taking standardized tests? Name 3.

7. What do the words in yellow signify?
8. Where will you find the section objectives?
9. Why are there page numbers next to the key terms?
10. What will you find in the Quick Reference section?

11. After each chapter, what are the 4 components are under Assessment?

12. On page 230, what individual is being discussed?
 - a. What kinds of info would you find in “Fast Facts?”

 - b. What business did this individual start?

 - c. What is her famous quotation?

13. What do the green pages signify?

14. What do the red pages signify?
15. What do the teal pages signify?
16. What color pages are found in the index?
17. Give a page number where you would find information on any US president, and name the president.
18. What page would you turn to if you were having problems interpreting graphs?
19. Give a page number where a specific company is mentioned, and name the company.
20. Where would you find a Right-to-work states map?
21. What are the four factors of production?

22. What band believed that Ticketmaster was charging too much for concert tickets?
23. What two inventors started Apple computers?
24. How much did the average tuition cost for a four-year college increase between 1999 and 2004?
25. Whose website makes the case that the sugar industry is an important part of the overall US economy?
26. Look at the cartoon on P 221 and answer the question below it.
27. Which car company is using “Super” Robots to assemble their cars?
28. On what page would I find a world map with gross domestic product per capita?
29. Which country has the 3rd largest population?
30. Who was Karl Marx?