

Unemployment Data:

Of the 2400 people surveyed, 565 are not working, 400 are underemployed. The status of those who are not working is as follows:

215 are full time students.

52 were looking for a job, but became discouraged and quit looking.

32 are in long-term care facilities.

38 are at least 16 years old and looking for work.

89 are retirees.

10 lost their jobs when a business closed due to the economy, but are looking for work.

112 are under 16 years old.

27 are in the underground economy and not looking for a "real" job.

18 are have just finished their education and are looking for work.

10 lost their jobs due to new technologies and are looking for jobs but don't have the skills for the open positions.

What is the number unemployed? _____

What is the number in the labor force? _____

What is the unemployment rate? _____

Name: _____

Unemployment Data:

Of the 5000 people surveyed, 1000 are not working. The status of those who are not working is as follows:

200 are full time students.

100 lost their jobs due to changes in technology and are searching for new work.

100 are incarcerated.

100 are frictionally unemployed but searching for work.

100 are retirees.

100 are under 16 years old.

100 are in the underground economy and not looking for a "real" job.

100 are in the military.

100 have given up looking for work.

What is the number unemployed? _____

What is the number in the labor force? _____

What is the unemployment rate? _____