

Situation	In the workforce?	Unemployed? (or underemployed?)	Type of unemployment?
I worked for 40 years and am now retired.
I quit my job a week ago because my boss is a jerk. I'm looking for another job.
I am currently incarcerated.
I work at home as a full-time parent to three children.
I reside at a mental hospital.
I work 3 part-time jobs to make ends meet.
I work 80 hours a week running my own restaurant.
I just finished college and am searching for my first full-time job.
I was injured on the job and now collect disability.
I have a college degree, but am working at McDonald's because I can't find a better job.
I have a college degree, but am working at McDonald's because I can't find a better job.
I work as a waiter in a diner, working mostly for tips.
I am 15 years old and have been looking for a job for the past month.
I lost my job because my company purchased technology that can do what I used to, but I'm looking for work.

I am a US postal worker.
I stopped looking for a job 2 months ago. No one is hiring right now.
I work in the family business, but don't earn a paycheck.
I only work one day a week because business is bad and my boss had to cut my hours.
I'm 15 years old and work for my uncle.
I volunteer 3 days a week at a children's hospital. I'm lucky that I received a large inheritance and don't have to work.
I recently lost my job at a manufacturing plant because of a downturn in the economy, but I'm actively looking for a new job.
I work part-time, but wish I could find a full-time job.
I'm 16 years old, but I'm too busy with school and activities to have a job.
I am laid off from a car manufacturing plant, and am working as a housekeeper until I'm called back.
I am a United States military officer stationed in Iraq.			